NEAL ANDERSON WINS FEDERAL DUCK STAMP CONTEST FOR SECOND TIME

This striking painting of a Red-breasted Merganser pair by Neal R. Anderson, a Nebraska native, was chosen for the 1994-95 Federal Duck Stamp from 434 entries. Mr. Anderson was first recognized for his artistic excellence when his painting of a Lesser Scaup was chosen for the 1989-90 Federal Duck Stamp. He has also designed the Nebraska Waterfowl Stamp since 1991, when it was established by the Nebraska Game and Parks Commission. Revenues from both the Federal and Nebraska Stamps are used for vital waterfowl projects such as preserving wetlands.
